

INTERIOR TRIM & PAINT

✓ Pre-Drywall Tour COMPLETED

You've seen what's behind the walls and confirmed that everything is in place.

With inspections passed and approvals cleared, it's time to close up and transform your framed home into real rooms.

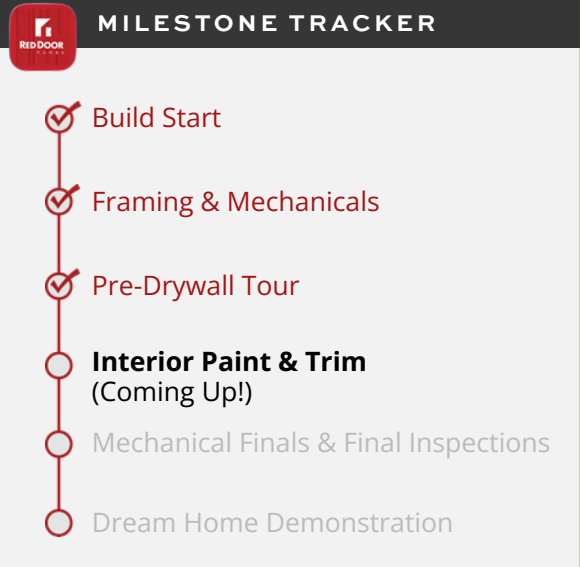

Next Step: INTERIOR TRIM & PAINT

As your home takes this major visual leap and drywall goes up, it starts to feel more real, more finished — and more like yours. These finishes at this milestone bring your design vision to life. Trim, doors, moldings, and your personalized selections will begin to make your house feel like your DREAM home.

HELPFUL THINGS TO KNOW

DRYWALL FINISHINGS INVOLVES MULTIPLE STAGES (HANGING, TAPING, MUDDING, SANDING)

- Each step needs drying time (slower=normal).
- Weather/humidity can affect dry times.
- Paint may look different than samples due to lighting/texture.
- Crews will rotate in/out — totally normal.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR YOU?

- Expect some dust and mess — totally normal.
- Begin planning furniture layout or colors — it's getting real!
- See your App for photos if you're unable to visit.
- Know that trim and paint happen in phases (it's not all done in one day!)
- Touch-ups are common — don't worry if things look half-done mid-phase.
- Share your excitement with family and friends — it's finally feeling like home!

Reach Out Anytime

The Red Door Homes app makes it easy to message your builder with questions at any time. It keeps all communication in one place, so everyone stays informed and your project stays on track.

Your builder will be your go-to throughout construction. If you have any questions or concerns along the way, just send us a message—we're here to help!

Where are we on the Journey?

The walls are up and the spaces are getting ready to be defined. Now comes the phase where craftsmanship and personal style start to shine through. Welcome to the end of "rough construction" — and the beginning of finish work.

WHAT RED DOOR IS DOING

- Communicating with you weekly on progress.
- Installing insulation (if not already completed).
- Hanging and finishing drywall throughout your home.
- Coordinating with trade partners to schedule interior finishes.
- Applying these items according to your selected finishes.

When will My Dream Home be Finished?

Now that we have completed the Pre-Drywall Tour – you should have received an updated completion window. This window of completion has narrowed to 4 weeks. If you have any questions on your date, please reach out to your Team on the App.

NO NEED TO MEMORIZE EVERYTHING

We've got your back!

Your home is no longer a concept — it's becoming a reality, one wall at a time. It is looking more finished by the day. Let's keep bringing your vision to life!

"This was the first time I could truly picture myself living in the home. The paint colors and trim details made it feel real."

— Natalie L., Spring Lake

"Drywall day was the first time our house felt like a home. We walked from room to room and could finally see the layout come to life."

— Brittany H., Fayetteville
